I can’t select this card. When I click on it, nothing happens there is a fullscreen button here, use it for your tests.

The game must show entirely in one frame without having to scrool up and down.
Right now, with this functionality, the game is cropped.

on phone : it’s not cropped anymore, but it’s not good either. We have to scroll up and down to see the whole game.
→ the game must show entirely on the screen, we must not have to scroll
